

Iowa River Clean-up 2017 SCHEDULE

(Questions? Please don't hesitate to contact Carol Sweeting at 319-541-2385 or carol-sweeting@iowa-city.org)

Saturday, September 16, 2017 Iowa River Cleanup Sturgis Ferry Park to Hills Access (~9.5 Miles)

6:30 a.m.: At Sturgis Ferry Boat Ramp: Public canoe delivery and Private canoe and gear unloading at the Sturgis Ferry Boat Ramp. After unloading private boats, proceed to Hills Access for check-in. Ramp will be staffed at this time.

7:00 am: Registration at Hills Access – All Volunteers must check-in.

7:30 am: Shuttle bus leaves Hills Access for Sturgis Boat Ramp.

7:45 am: Cleanup orientation and river safety talk.

8:00 am: Canoes begin launching.

9:00 am: Mid-Point 1: Izaak Walton League boat ramp – west bank - private (~2.0 miles). Unload large trash items from canoes as needed. Porta-potty and drinking water are available.

11:00 am: Mid-Point 2: Iowa City Wastewater Outfall – east bank - private (~4.0 miles). Unload large trash items from canoes as needed. Drinking water available.

1:00 pm: Hills Access – Land volunteers will be ready to remove garbage and sort recyclable loads.

3:30pm: All clean-up volunteers off the water at Hills Access by this time.

Water will be provided, but you are responsible for lunch and any other food items you require. It is advisable to bring a personal cooler for your lunch/snacks and a reusable water bottle.

Thank you for participating!!!